

The Preservation Magazine of Greensboro

May 2019

May is National Historic Preservation Month!

To spotlight grassroots preservation efforts in America, Preservation Week was created in 1971. With growing popularity, the celebration was extended to include the entire month of May. Celebrate with us!

Tour Activities!

Patron's PLUS ticket includes

PARTY+GALA+TOUR

- Our Lindley Park Kick-Off Party will be held on Saturday, May 4th at an elegant Lindley Park home on Northridge Street.
- On the evening of Thursday, May

Six houses highlighting early twentieth century design will open their doors to ticket holders. Lindley Park stands among Greensboro's classic park-centered neighborhoods. Its winding streets, sidewalks, parks, and shade trees are the legacy of landscape architect Earle Sumner Draper. Every major North Carolina city has a Draper neighborhood of esteem, and Lindley Park is ours!

16th the Tour Gala will feature live music and delicious food at Scrambled.

- Our Patrons PLUS ticket includes admission to the Lindley Park Tour, featuring six splendid homes that represent a range of architecture and history.

Patrons PLUS tickets are available for $75 each.

Visit our Tour Page to learn more about tickets and free events.
