Celebrate Preservation Month!

National Preservation Month is here and we are excited to share the 2021 Tour of Historic Homes & Gardens showcasing historic College Hill! Through our virtual tour, participants will learn of the neighborhood's rich history and architecture, and will be introduced to a few intrepid homeowners who enjoy living in a piece of Greensboro history!

Due to the unpredictability of the pandemic, our tour is not ticketed this year. However, as our largest annual fundraiser, we will depend on the generosity of our tour participants to show us how much they enjoyed this special peek into College Hill history. When your are done, please click on the donation button, and give generously!
The Tour booklet will be available on our website in PDF format.

Guilford at 250
Our leadership in Civil Rights

Guilford County is unusual in North Carolina, and perhaps the American South for having a treasure trove of Black historic sites. Sometimes at the forefront of the Civil Rights Movement, and sometimes lagging, Guilford County has much to offer the state and the nation in terms of the history of a place and its people. Learn more about our unique history as Shaw University's Dean of Arts, Sciences, and Humanities, Dr. Valerie Ann Johnson provides history and perspectives. This Zoom event on May 20 at 6 pm is free to the public as part of our year-long monthly series celebrating Guilford County’s 250th birthday!

Planned Giving for Preservation

Most people assume that an organization with a 50-year legacy and an attachment to the Morehead name must be well-financed by a deep endowment or government support, but this is not true. Help make Preservation Greensboro and Blandwood Museum a more stable organization by considering a legacy gift. Your commitment to supporting preservation work will remain right here in Greensboro. A gift from your estate may include a specific dollar amount or a percentage of value. Invest in our future through historic preservation!

We Need Your Membership, Especially Now.

Please consider making a contribution to Preservation Greensboro.
